

Go Be A Nazi Somewhere Else

It's none of your damn business what someone wants to publish on the internet unless what it does is part of committing a crime! And what's this about extra fees? Looking for a way to pass yet another law designed to do nothing but steal money from people for nothing. From the president right on down, it is looking more and more, every day like all these different groups are trying to take over everything that makes this country what it is like a bunch of freakin' Nazi dictators. You are all sick in the head! This crap goes against everything America stands for! Of course it goes right in line with the dictator want-to-be that's in the Whitehouse right now. I just don't believe it! The people that we vote in to power are trying to destroy everything this country is supposed to be about. Our worst enemies are right here in this country trying to sell a bunch of lies and anti-American crap to everyone out of nothing but pure greed. Elected leaders and rich corporations that care absolutely nothing at all about any of the things that make this country what it is and with nothing but disrespect for and criminal attempts at destroying the constitution of the United States of America. I thought we were trying to fight terrorists not become them! This country is about the people... the citizens... not who can be the best at abusing them. I never would have imagined there would be so many attempts at destroying this country as there have been in the last few years and it just keeps getting worse while most people just turn their head and try to ignore it and live in some sort of delusion like a bunch of stupid idiots! Actions like this are just as dangerous and subversive as anything any terrorist could manage to pull off and people need to see this very real threat to our freedom for what it is and they need to see it now!!! These corporations are trying to take away the very freedom we are promised in the constitution that this country operates on and it is despicable and disgraceful. Such a thing as this shoul!

en be considered. How could the government even take something like this seriously?! You start trying to take away our freedom like this and you are going to start having riots like you have never seen or heard of before in the history of this country! I believe that the people of this country are already being pushed close to the limit as it is and it will not take a whole lot more for things to start getting violent. Maybe that is just what needs to happen though. Everyone has just been sitting still while evil scum like Bush and Cheney and many of their associates just walk all over and violate the very law they are there to protect and even their own political organization is in the process of turning their backs on them and the people are not going to be far behind. These powers that be may think the people are plenty passified and otherwise incapable of organizing to a point of fighting them in their attempts to steal their country away from them, but I believe they will be proved to be very wrong. We now have the capability of communication like we have never had before and the people of this country are going to begin to come together and rebel against these lawless scum that try to destroy what we have fought and died for, for generations! I believe that the people of this country will not sit still while their freedoms are stolen from them to satisfy the greed of but a very few. And those very few that would try and do such a thing as to destroy our rights and freedoms deserve no less than to be destroyed or otherwise taken over by the people of this country before they can go any further. I believe that any person, group, company, or organization that begins to make efforts to violate our constitution should be rendered powerless and no longer able to function at all in this country and everything that belongs to such should be confiscated by the government and used to promote and enhance the freedoms that we cherish so dearly. There is no excuse for such behavior. It is obvious that the only !

force behind this is greed and this greed means more to these enemies of the United States than any of the people they should be here to serve. I say that they are a real threat to this country and they have proven that they are nothing less than our enemy and they should go on trial to determine how they should be allowed --if at all-- to continue to exist within the borders of this country. There is NO way to justify what is proposed here and such actions against our rights and freedoms should never, ever be tolerated! All these attempts at taking away my rights and freedoms recently are beginning to make me very angry and I know it is doing the same with many, many more and I, for one, will not tolerate it and I will fight it any way I can. I see this sort of thing as a threat my life... someone is trying to destroy my life and steal away all that is my right to enjoy in this country. What these disgusting companies and people in them and like them are trying to do to me is equivalent to starting a war with me and anyone else who values their freedom and this very action is equivalent to an act of war. I am ready to fight NOW... and I will and if I lose, it will not be without me taking a lot of them with me! This is life or death! For me to allow anyone to steal away everything my citizenship means is for me to allow myself to be killed. Does anyone else see this for what it is?! Does anyone else see this threat to their life in this country?! Does anyone else know what this country is suppose to be about and have ancestors who fought and died to protect the very rights and freedoms that these bastards are trying to take away?! This needs to stop now or the fight needs to begin and I am ready!!!
